Federal Communications Commission

To Whom It May Concern:

I received a phone call this morning @ 8:20 am from a collector. The first call, I picked up and hung up, because my family was still sleeping. When the phone rang a third time, I answered.

At that point, a woman proceeded to yell at me over and over "Pay your bill and we'll quit calling!" I couldn't even get a word in. She wouldn't let me speak. I got extremely angry, and demanded to know who she was, and what bill she was trying to collect.

I do not owe anyone anything. My credit report will clearly show that I have great credit. Although, somehow, I am being associated with my mother-in-law. For some reason, we are constantly being contacted regarding her debts. When I asked again who she was, what the bill was for, and who owed it, she wouldn't respond.

When I told the woman on the other end of the phone that I wasn't Monica, she told me she didn't know who that was, and continued to yell at me. Finally, she hung up telling me to have a nice day.

She NEVER disclosed the reason for the call. I tried calling the phone number back on my caller ID, and I can't get a ring. It is a fax line.

The only thing that I have is the number that the call came from. It is 928-552-1111.

Please help! I would like this lady to be reprimanded! I am being harassed for debts that are not mine!!!!

Sincerely,

Jessica Dorough
